

SKILL DEVELOPMENT

What is skill development?

Skill development is the process of identifying your skill gaps. It's about your success.

India is recognised as one of the youngest nation in the world with over 50% of the population under 30 years.it is estimated that by about 2025 India will have the 25% of total global workforce. As far the economic progress of our country is concerned, India is still lagging behind due to various problems like poverty unemployment illiteracy medical infrastructure etc. the study also discusses about the skill impacted through the educational programs and requirement of additional sector specific courses.the need of skill Indian campaign for the economic can be justified on the basis of followingskill development has been major policy of Indian government in the past few years. Paper is based on data from two recent rounds of nationality representative employment and unemployment survey. education is the single most important instrument for social and economic transformation.

- WHY DO WE NEED SKILL DEVELOPMENT?

skill development is important because it's very important to know about our India how much development we have ourselves so the globalisation and knowledge and competition are the three main skills are important for highly skilled workforce in both the development and developed nation as it The growth rate towards higher. India skill development is critical from both economic and demographic.

-Based on skill development I ll give a small example.

-Communication.

-interpersonal.

-organisation.

-problem solving.

-self confidence

Some etc etc.....

Skill development is most important each and everyone it is necessary to learn about ourselves and also what's going around us having your own skills is also very important as still and still are India is developing country. Chunar on conference we need to have our own skills to develop the country more and more introverted.

THANK YOU.
