

Yashswita Ojha

UP/SW/19/A/559177

ONLINE LEARNING - MAKING EDUCATION SYSTEM WORTH

Who doesn't want an easy way to come out of a compound situation? We all want it, Right?

We always desire to execute things without making them complicated, thus and so online learning assist us to deal with our complex academic studies.

Online classes not just give the effective way of learning it also builds confidence in students about the concepts.

The advantages that you will get from online learning are as follows:

STUDY AS PER YOUR ACCORD- You Can set the study time by yourself. There is no pressure on you to study at a given time unlike schools and universities, whenever you have time no matter wherever you are, no worry you can easily cover your topics.

EASY TO INTERACT - More often students are not comfortable in interacting with their teachers due to their introvert or ambivert nature and in asking a same doubt several times from teacher they feel embarrassed but in online classes there is no such problem. In order to understand any concept you just have to pause the video or replay it again and again until you get the hang of it.

TOP-NOTCH PEDAGOGY AND AFFORDABLE - It happens with many students when they start to understand any topic by themselves they usually can't get their head around of it because they aren't on the balls when the class was going on or perhaps due to the monotonous way of teaching. There are many online platforms you will get over the internet for e.g.- unacademy, byju's, vedantu etc. and of course the pedagogy is of paramount importance, most of the online learning platforms have awe-inspiring teaching style and the best part is they are accessible to everyone.

Online degrees are approved and promoted by DEC (distance education council) as well. Online classes also promote the finance and literacy rate of our country

SECURE- Nowadays, due to pandemic, the schools and colleges compel to teach in online mode and you don't have to leave your comfort zone, studies are also done under supervision of parents.

The online method is very beneficial for assiduous and resolute students. Teachers are still available to them even in this pandemic by the help of online classes they just have to keep their nose to the grindstone and then they will surely pass with flying colors.