

CHANGE

I was a short tempered person before I join NCC. If anybody did anything wrong if it's big or small I'll just shout him or her off. I'll get so much anger that I can't control. My friend told me that I should change my character if I want to join NCC. I didn't understand it. Why should I change my character for joining NCC ? After I join NCC I realised that I should control my anger because if I said something in anger, my mistake will cause my friends also. So I thought that it's time to change my attitude and also my character. So, now am a quiet person in NCC. Now I can control my anger and my temper.
