

My experience as NCC Cadet at Independence Day Celebration

Independence Day is celebrated annually on 15 August as a National holiday in India, commemorating the Nations Independence from the United Kingdom on 15 August 1947. Independence Day marks the end of British rule in 1947 and the establishment of a free and independent Indian nation.

As an NCC Cadet during Independence day celebration i had a privileged of experiencing new things on the celebration day. My experiences are to be punctual for trainings, learned to inculcate the qualities of disciplines, also to work as a group on training day in the field, an experiences of group marching with many NCC cadets from different schools and collages, On the rehearsal for the final day the weather was to hot inspite of that we wear our full uniform so that it would be perfect for the on the final day, and also learned to salute the Chief Guest in a worthy manner, On the final day there was a heavy rain going on and there came a speech which motivates us to be a better citizen and also to be a better future cadets.

I am grateful to be an NCC cadet. NCC has given me lots of new knowledge and experiences. NCC make person qualitative and responsible leaders and good citizen for the society and for our country.
