

10-1-2022

Orientation Course on Peer Mediation

Terms and Conditions

Orientation Course on Peer Mediation- In today’s world, Peer Mediation is a Practice through which we can resolve the conflicts in nonviolent manner. Hence there is a need for peer mediation as a mediator. Following are the terms and conditions and procedure of this contest.

- a) Participants have to read the module of the course on Peer Mediation and answer the questions given at last in the exercises.
- b) Participants will be able to do this course by downloading the module from the MyGov Platform and can submit their responses after reading the course.
- c) Organizers will not accept any responsibility for entries that are lost, or incomplete or have not been transmitted due to computer error or any other error beyond the organizer’s reasonable control.
- d) In the event of unforeseen circumstances, organizers reserve the right to amend or withdraw the program at any time. For the avoidance of doubt this includes the right to amend these terms and conditions.
- e) You will be required to provide your name, email address, telephone number and postal address. By submitting your contact details you will give consent to these details being used for the purpose of the contest.
- f) By entering the event the Entrant accepts and agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.
- g) Organizers reserve all rights to refuse participation to any participant if they deem participation or association of any participant which is detrimental to the event or the Organizers or partners of the event. The registrations shall be void if the information received by the Organizers is illegible, incomplete, damaged, false or erroneous.
- h) Organizer’s decision on the event shall be final and binding and no correspondence will be entered into regarding the same.
- i) These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by the laws of the Indian Judiciary